Affinity Conference Center

A photograph capturing a joyful moment at a wedding or special event. In the foreground, a woman with long, light-colored hair is seen from the side, her face partially hidden in shadow. She is holding a small, round bouquet of flowers. Behind her, a large group of people are gathered, their hands raised in a toast. Many are holding clear champagne flutes, some with pink or gold-colored liquid inside. The background is dark and out of focus, creating a bokeh effect with soft, glowing lights that suggest a festive atmosphere.
